I'M GETTING

1/4 Space No.4

Kare, my cat, was so stressed the vet issued a special certificate. He poked 6 times more often than Mei did. One day he acted like he was going to do it in the living room.

I frantically looked for newspapers or Kleenex to catch it but none was near Sak! At the last resort, I used my "hands" and got it in the nick of time.

The next day I relayed this event to my assistants; they were proud of me and said I did it out of love.

But no, I was just trying to save my carpet.
